

CHRISTOPHER BROWN - PHOTOGRAPHS

Fine prints of the Western American landscape

ONE-DAY LANDSCAPE PHOTOGRAPHY WORKSHOPS

A short but very complete one-day course in landscape photography.

MORNING SESSION, 9-12am: The ESSENTIALS – inside, at my studio:

1. Learning to see.
2. Equipment basics.
3. Exposing properly.
4. Focusing carefully.
5. Composing thoughtfully.
6. Understanding light and color.

AFTERNOON SESSION, 1-4pm: The PRACTICE – outside, nearby.

After lunch we will go outside, and with patient personal guidance you will put everything into practice, using a simple, technical sequence that will become second nature, freeing you for aesthetic and artistic creativity, expressing your vision. We will explore how all the morning information is applied in actually taking pictures.

COST

You can take the entire course, or just the morning session.

Limited to 7 students.

$150. @

Morning session only: $95.

The tuition is non-refundable unless the class is cancelled due to insufficient enrollment. Class will be rescheduled for inclement weather.
